“Together we’ll stop accidents at work”

An Introduction to SAAW

SAAW Health and Safety Consultants are a Health and Safety consultancy based in the Westcountry and have been awarded the "Buy with Confidence" accreditation by the trading standards office to show our commitment to excellent customer service.

SAAW Health and Safety Consultants was founded by James Webber who as a consultant has over twenty years' experience and gained a large portfolio in Health, safety and training.

We offer practical and achievable health, safety, training and welfare solutions designed to suit your organisation.

We provide the expertise, guidance and professional resources to work in partnership with you at all times ensuring that you fully benefit from a team of highly qualified and skilled specialists.

Our trainers hold the "professional training certificate" and are members of the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health (CIEH). We not only offer standard training but we will also tailor the training to suit your individual requirements. Our Safety, Health and Welfare consultants are specialists in a wide range of industries.

Health and Safety Management Services

As a consultancy we are focusing on employers who have 5 to 150 employees and are either not in a position to employ a person for their safety or would benefit from the specialist expertise that SAAW are able to supply.
